

Opener/ We've Got Robin Hood

The Very Unmerry Adventures of Robin Hood

D. L. Yancey

♩ = 120

3

There's a tale from a land a far a-way land in a 7

lit-tle town a - cross the sea. In a land long a-go— be-fore face masks and co-vid Before you e - ven need - ed vac - cines. In 17

11

3

Not-ting-ham Eng-land in the for-est of Sher-woodhe tale of a leg-end a-bides. The poor they a-dore him. The rich they ab-hor him. Is he good? Is he bad? You decide. ____ For he takes from_ the rich and he gives to_ the need - y. He fills up_ the emp - ty and he emp - ties_ the greed - y. List - en dear friends and yes

21

24

27

30

lis - ten you should to the ver - y un-merr-y ad - ven - tures of Rob - in...

34  It's a glo-ri-ous, won-der-ful, beau-ti-ful day in the

43  neigh-bor-hood and we're feel - ing good. You could say we're mer-ry! — We're

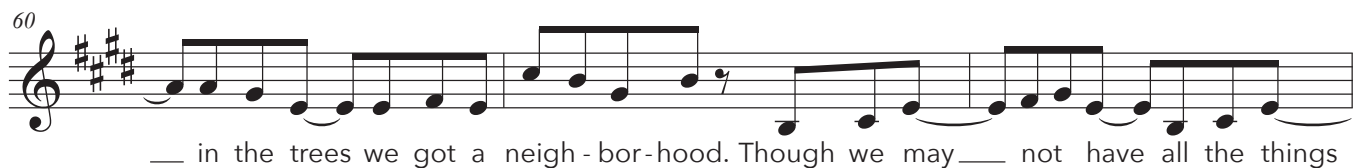

46  free to do what we want when we want no one to an - swer to. It's just me

48  — and you, and all of us we're Mer-ry! — There ain't no rea-son to be

51  mop-in' a-bout, 'cause when you're liv-in' in the for-est you can scream and shout! Hey

54  uh - huh uh whoa! — We're do - ing our own — thing and it's

57  feel-ing good. Hey — uh - hun uh whoa! — With the breeze

60  — in the trees we got a neigh - bor-hood. Though we may — not have all the things

63  — we should it's all good. — 'Cause we've got Rob-in — I'd

67

 rath - er be free in the for - est than live out my days as a slave we're the free

69

 — and brave and proud of it we're mer - ry! — The 71

 Sher - iff of Not - ting - ham wants to put an end to our thrill but he nev -

73

 - er will. He can't be - cause we're mer - ry! — And we'll keep fight - ing till the

76

 day that we die and if he tries us we will rise up with our bat - tle cry, Hey —

79

 uh - huh uh whoa — We will stand — and fight a - gainst ty -

82

 - ran - ny — Hey — uh - huh uh whoa! — Tell the Sher -

85

 - iff I won't let him bull - y me! 'Cause we've got — in our cor - ner a fight -

88

 - er who'll stand up for good. — Tell him we've got Rob - in —

92

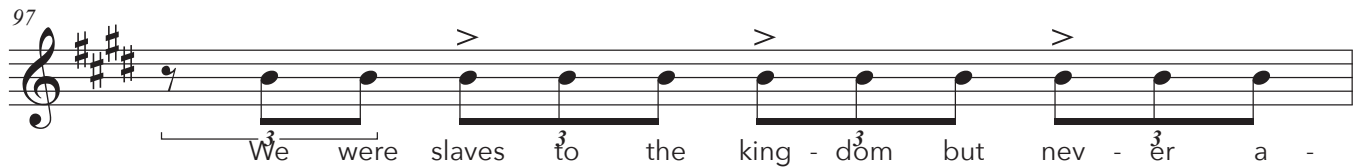

Yo! I am the one that you read a-bout Tak-ing care of the poor? With-out a doubt!

94

If you're rich and you're greed-y, cut that out! Say my name a-gain! Ro-bin

96

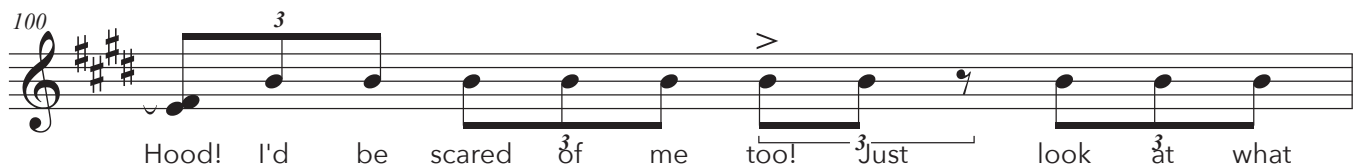

Hood! I live here in these woods with my Merr-y Men.

97

We were slaves to the king-dom but nev-er a - gain! We had to break free from ty-ran-ny now they're scared of me! Rob-in 100

98

Hood! I'd be scared of me too! Just look at what 101

I can do I'm like a wiz-ard with ar-rows they fly! Fly like a bird. For-get what you heard. You think that I might miss? NO! That's ab - surd. Some-times we're rob-bing and steal-ing but still we're no vil-lains. We're chill-ing We're the mer-ry

103

104

105

106

men! We rob from the greed-y and give to the 107

need-y all start-ing right here with my Maid Mar-i-

108

on. The sher-ff of Not-ting-ham best re-cog-

109

nize, He don't stand a chance when the Rob-in arrives. As long as he stays out the for-est we're good. 'Cause this is my home and I'm 112

110

Rob-in Hey Uh-huh uh whoa With the mer-

115

-ry men we will all de-fend. Hey Uh-huh uh whoa

118

No we will not bow No we will not bend! 'Cause we've got 121

in our cor - ner a fight - er who'll stand up for good. Friends let's hear it for Rob-in! Three cheers for Rob-in! He's brave and non-stop-pingWith an 127

124

e-go that's whop-ping! It's the ver - y un - mer - ry ad

135

ven - tures of Rob - in...